

Faith is the Substance

Faith is believing the facts offered. Then the believing soul embraces these facts as his/her own personal truth.

We affirm and God confirms these facts
in us as living realities

"His Spirit bears witness with my spirit"

(Romans 8:16)