

Focus on the Container/ Cup, or our Humanity!

(Romans 6:15-7:25)

The Body Death renders us, “Dead to the Law.” A dead man cannot keep the law, but a PERSON WHO THINKS THAT HE IS ALIVE APART FROM CHRIST, FALSELY BELIEVES THAT HE IS ABLE TO KEEP THE LAW. THEREFORE, HE SHOULD AND OUGHT TO TRY.

Man has no life of his own. Man is a mere container, a temple; a slave; a wife; a body—not an independent law keeper.

The cup/container has a deep deception in its consciousness. We, the cup, think that we are independent selves operating out of our own power source. The cup thinks that it is an independent god with a life of its own. The cup has a mind of separation, and acts by self-effort as if it is a separate being. The cup is always striving to become, but failing to be. The Cross renders man dead to an independent-satanic-self, therefore dead to the law which always shouts at that powerless self.

“Dead to the Law” provides a clean cup
