

STRONG NEGATIVES

(The pulls on our soul level are not wrong)

Temptations are not sin

We just misinterpret them as wrong and try to do good by resisting them (Satan). But if we recognize the pulls as from Satan and not coming from us, When we stop resisting Satan's pulls, he loses his power. You are then free to reverse the pulls by recognizing Christ in us by faith.

Example: We don't fight the darkness when we walk in the dark room, no, we simply switch on the light.

"Jesus learned the obedience of faith, by the things that He suffered."

(Heb. 5:8)
