

I believe that I am crucified to the world (Gal.6:14); I believe that I am crucified to the misuse of my flesh (Gal. 5:24). I believe that I am crucified to the devil's power over me (Heb. 2:14-15). I believe that I am holy, without blame and without reproof (Col. 1:22). I believe that I am raised in Christ unto good works which He does through me (Eph. 2:10). I believe that I am seated on the throne of power through Christ's ascension (Eph. 2:6). I believe that Christ is therefore joined to me --- body, soul, and spirit (1 Cor.6:15-17), and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me (Gal 2:20). I believe that I am a member of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones (Eph. 5:30).

I believe that Jesus and I are joined together as one spirit (1 Cor. 6:17), fulfilling Jesus' prophetic prayer for me in John 17:21. I believe that Jesus has given me His glory which unifies us together into one person (John 17:22).

I believe that I am justified by faith (Rom. 3:24), I am sanctified by faith (Heb. 10:10;14), and I am glorified by faith (Rom.8:30). As I look into the mirror of who I am, I am transformed from glory to glory (2 Cor. 3:18). AMEN!

Since this is the truth concerning every born-again person, then why do we have problems accepting this great inheritance? I believe that our only problem is that we are walking in unbelief instead of walking in faith (Rom.7:19-20). I believe that we trust more in what we think and how we feel than who God says we really are. How do we walk in faith?
